

The Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf (WPSD)

is a nonprofit, tuition-free school with high academic expectations. Founded in 1869, WPSD provides quality educational services and a complete extracurricular program to deaf and hard-of-hearing children from birth through grade 12. WPSD serves more than 325 day and residential students from across Pennsylvania.

- WPSD offers an all-inclusive communication/language environment. Communication needs are met on an individual basis with emphasis on fluency in American Sign Language (ASL) and both written and spoken English
- With campuses in Scranton and Pittsburgh and an office in Camp Hill, PA, WPSD is the largest comprehensive center for deaf education in the state and the only Pennsylvania school fully accredited by The Conference of Educational Administrators of Schools and Programs for the Deaf.
- Our parent-infant program provides early intervention services through home visits and on-campus activities to deaf and hard-of-hearing infants, toddlers and their families across the state.
- In addition to our academic and athletic departments, WPSD staff includes Speech Language Pathologists, Audiologists, a School Psychologist, a Communication teacher, an ASL Specialist, Occupational/Physical Therapist, Guidance Counselor, School Counselors and an Art Therapist.
