CHAMPION LAKES GOLF COURSE

Nestled between the Chestnut Ridge and the Laurel Mountains of Western Pennsylvania, Champion Lakes offers golf enthusiasts the best in country club golf course conditions in the scenic, country atmosphere of the Ligonier Valley, just 60 minutes east of Pittsburgh. Its well-groomed greens and fairways reflect the pride and dedication of owners Dick Groat and Jerry Lynch, major league baseball teammates with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Champion Lakes is a wooded, 6,608 yard layout with tightly tree-lined fairways and challenging, but always meticulous greens. The lawns and pins present a challenge for even the most competitive golfer, a true testament to the course record of only 5-under par, held by PGA Tour Pro Rocco Mediate, and by golf legend Arnold Palmer's low round of 68.
