

WPSD PARENT NEWS

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT WPSD?

In honor of Black History Month, our High School students visited the August Wilson African American Cultural Center. The students were given the opportunity to learn more about the 10 plays written by August Wilson and their impact on history.

The Varsity Girls' Basketball Team place 3rd overall at the ESDAA tournament in Philadelphia! They also won the team foul shot competition! A big congratulations to Anae B. and Ava P. for earning all-star recognition!

Our all female ESports team won the Garden State Championship! We also had some groundbreaking participation: Sebastian V. worked at the control desk as the first Deaf Technical Director of a live-streamed Scholastic Event and Ava P. debuted as the first Deaf Scholastic ShoutCaster in Garden State ESports history! Way to go Lions!

Karen Mosholder was on campus last week to meet with some Middle School and High School students to discuss her upcoming book that includes deaf characters. Mrs. Mosholder wanted to get a deaf perspective from our students before finishing the book.

High School Honor Roll was held last week. We are always impressed by the academic achievements of our students!

Our Middle School had a busy week at the Marie Philip and Walden Schools for the Deaf in Massachusetts:

Monday afternoon, the Basketball Team headed to the annual Middle School Basketball Tournament. Then Thursday morning, the Math Team headed to the NTID Regional Math Competition. We can't wait to hear the results for both teams!

A fun celebration was held in the Elementary School on February 29th. The students and staff in the Elementary School participated in activities highlighting Leap Day!

Our High School Robotics Team headed to Austin, Texas for the Aerial Drones Competition (ADC) and Underwater Robotics (ROV) at the Texas School for the Deaf.

The Academic Bowl team continues to have friendly scrimmages against fellow schools to sharpen their competition skills.

Our Battle of the Books team travelled to Quaker Valley High School to face other local schools.

Read Across America was celebrated in the Children's Center with stories read by special guests, Carrie Rain & Kevin McDonough. They also brought back the well loved tradition of making a Cat In the Hat cake, working to see how high they could stack the layers!

We are so proud of the way all of our students and staff represent WPSD in all these competitions. Way to go Lions!

Make sure to check Facebook and Instagram to see pictures and more information on all these amazing activities!

Don't forget: NO school on Monday!
